

THE ORANGE COUNTY SUPERIOR COURT
AND THE ORANGE COUNTY BAR ASSOCIATION
INVITE YOU TO ATTEND A TIMELY PANEL DISCUSSION

TECHNOLOGY – ITS IMPACT
ON THE MEDIA, COURTS, AND ATTORNEYS

Friday

April 25, 2008

11:45 - 1:30 p.m.

Central Justice Center

3rd Floor

Jury Assembly Room

700 Civic Center Drive

Santa Ana, CA

There is no charge for this event.

Refreshments Provided

Reservations Required

Phone: (714) 834-2717

Fax: (714) 647-4849

E-mail:

gvieau@occourts.org

Vikki Vargas is KNBC's Orange County Bureau Chief, overseeing all news gathering operations for the station in Orange County. She has been honored by the Orange County Press Club for best news reporting, and by the State Bar Association for outstanding reporting.

Hon. Richard M. King is a former prosecutor who tried over 100 jury trials including several high profile capital cases before his appointment to the bench in 2000. He is a member of the Court's Technology Committee and is the judicial liaison supervising the installation of evidence presentation equipment for the Superior Court.

Kelli L. Sager is a prominent attorney with 20 years experience in First Amendment-related litigation, including representation of television stations, radio stations, and newspapers. She is the Western Division representative for the American Bar Association Forum on Communications Law.

J. Craig Williams is an Orange County attorney, and the founder and editor of "May it Please the Court," voted Best Individual Weblog, 2005, by the Los Angeles Press Club and 100 best Web sites by lawyers, for lawyers, as chosen by the editors of the ABA Journal.

